

If you are needing to self-isolate, we are providing you with website links and activities to keep your child busy at home (maybe with a little help)! In order for your child can continue their learning at home, we will be sending them a home learning book with a range of challenges for them to complete.

Help your child with reading at home

How Can I Help My Child at Home?

- Play lots of sound and listening games with your child.
- Read as much as possible to and with your child.
- Encourage and praise – get them to have a 'good guess'.
- If your child is struggling to decode a word, help them by encouraging them to say each sound in the word from left to right.
- Blend the sounds by pointing to each one, e.g. /c/ in cat, /p/ in pat, /ng/ in sing, /ee/ in been.
- Discuss the meaning of words if your child does not know what they have read.

Help your child with literacy at home

The story that we are learning is called Mrs Armitage on Wheels by Quentin Blake. As a school, we learn stories and other texts using the Talk for Writing technique. With your child, learn the story by putting actions to it and see if they can practise it until they can remember it off by heart.

Help your child with maths at home

Your child has login details to access Numbots which is an online maths game. They can use this to complete challenges and earn coins! The children's login information will be available in their home learning book. You can access the website at:

<https://play.numbots.com/#/account/search-school>

Oxford Owl-

<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/> This fantastic website allows you to sign up for free. Once signed up, your child can access over a hundred free e-books. You can select the correct age and level for your child (see left). There is even an option for these books to be read to them!
